DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Control of the c

ce crows buyers to the farm of John Flood, a cattle dealer resident in Killingly, on Monday.

Attorney E. L. Darbie will appear before the supreme court at Hartford today (Tuesday) as counsel in the Alvah Dixon-Bryan Lewis case.

Bev. W. H. Graeult. M. S., whe spake at masses at St. James' church Sunday, returned to his home in Pawtucket, Monday, George. A. Freeman of New London was a visitor with friends in Danielson Monday.

Indicating that presperity is not entirely lost in this territory, the deposits at the Brooklyn Savings bank showed an increase during every month of 1376, and the egain in deposits for the year was in excess of $240,000.

Upwards of $2,000,000 worth of Liberty bonds are owned by residents of Killingly, another evidence of the reserve financial strength of the savers of this community and contemplation of which may ease the minds of many who have been inclined to be pessimistic.

CARDINAL GIBBONS HOME

Baltimore, Jan. 2.—Carcilmal Gibbons was in a happy frame of mind, and expressed his delight at being home again. He declared he felt fine! and said he wanted to go automobile riding tomofrow. He was not allowed to overtax his rength in any way upon reaching home and went immediately to bed. Three Baltimore, Jan. 3.—Cardinal Gibbons was in a happy frame of mind and expressed his delight at being home again. He declared he "felt fine" and said he wanted to go automobile riding tomofrow. He was not allowed to overtax his spength in any way upon reaching home and went immediately to hed. Three hours later he was said to be resting comfortably and to have felt no ill effects from his trip.

The declared he was said to be resting comfortably and to have felt no ill effects from his trip.

The declared he was said to be resting comfortably and to have felt no ill effects from his trip.

The declared he was said to be resting to have funds according to a letter received here Monday from Miss Caroline Borhaeur, formerly a teacher in Putnam High school. Miss Brohaeur wrote that there is pienty of food a shortage only of milk being experienced—and even milk is not expensive when it can be had, being obtainable at "one-seventieth" of an American dollar per glas. Miss Borhaeur, who had some unpleasant experiences on secount of her nationality, while teaching in a Missachusetts city during the war, had returned to Germany to reside permianents for the homecoming.

Nangateck.—Miss Whittemore gave a dance Monday evening at her nome. The Anthorage, in honor of her nicce, Miss tiertrude Whittemore.

Nangateck—Miss Whittemore gave a dance Monday evening at her nome. The Anthorage, in honor of her nicce, Miss tiertrude Whittemore.

Nangateck—Miss Whittemore gave a dance Monday evening at her nome. The Anthorage in honor of her nicce, Miss tiertrude Whittemore.

Nangateck—Miss Whittemore gave a dance Monday evening at her nome. The anthorage from what they were before the World war, she finds it possible to live in conference at a feet that will be of injerent to many in Putnam, where there has been a shortage throughout the cold weather season.

Legislators from a number of towns in luckislators from a number of towns in Windnam county will be leaving hers for Hartford today (Tuesday) for the zainous and organization of the state leg sature. Some of the riembers-elect went over to Hartford Monday evening. The numbers-elect have received their transportation and are all set for traveling.

Schools throughout the town of Put-nam opened Monday for the winter term. Practically all the pupils were back in their places for the morning session, but there were some absences due to ichie-i refurts from heliday trips or other such

County Game Warden Harry E. Battey s on the trail of the fishermen who are given to the practice of taking "short" proceed to the practice of taking "short" pickers! He has caused five arrests and prosecutions for this violation of the fish laws during the past two weeks not will be on which for other violations and the let fishing season closes on February 18. No pickers! that is under 12 inches never the past of the process of the process of the process of the process of the past of the process of the pr

No pickerel that is under 12 incres n length may be legally taken.

Malcolm M. Willey, student at Chumbia university, will return to New York today (Tuesday) arter spending the holding season at his home in Putnam.

State Atterney Charles E. Searls and Mrs. Searls will leave the latter of this month to spend several weeks in the south.

The force of workers in the Putnam allroad yar and freight house has been reduced to a minimum and, is now far below the figures that obtained during Monday brought another spring-like day to Putnam, the temperature falling only slightly below the freezing point at only signify below the Irresing point at any time during the period. Some motorists were operating cars that bore 1920 registration plates on Monday but most cars in use were equipped with new markers.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Wright have returned from a holiday visit with friends turned from a holiday visit with friends in Waterbury.

State Treasurer G. Harold Gilpatric and Major S. M. Wheelock, of Governor Lake's staff are in Hartford.

Traffic is now being allowed to pass through Putnm to Providence vis Chepatchet without detour, though the state road-work is not yet completed.

Richard Carberry and Philip J. Lavery, two young men who are residents of the nearby town of Webster, have perfected a non-blowable fuse which is expected to be a great aid to telephone service, inasmuch as it will prevent instruments because the new of the service of the ser much as it will prevent instruments be-ing not out of commission by thunder-storms. The device is of so much merit that representatives of the big. telephone companies and of the Canadian govern-ment have arranged to inspect it. Worcester papers Monday featured a story telling that Alvin L. Bradley of that city had been arrested in a Bridge-port hospital. Much of the loot that Bradley took from residences hereabouts.

ort hospital. Much of the loot that Bradley took from residences hereabous was recovered in Worcester.

There was open water Monday on ponds to which loe dealers were looking with encouragement last week when there was promise of sytting an ice crop.

There were no arrests in this city through the New Year period.

A regular meeting of the common council is, scheduled fo this (Tuesday)

State roads all through this territory donday were practically free of ice and traveling as safe as in summer time.

Hiddletown.—Judge Curties S. Bacon of the probate court has appointed Mayor lances F. Connery, Deputy United States Marshall Thormas F. Griffin and T. W. O'Kelfe appraisers on the $100,000 estate of the late Mary Donovan. The property to be appraised is largely real estate. in-culing the land upon which the Grand Treats stands.

REE THEATRE

-TODAY-MAY ALLISON

"ARE ALL MEN ALIKE?" A Gorgeous Glittering Presentation of New York's Night Life-Pictured From Arthur Stringer's Novel, "The Waffle Iron," as Published in McClure's Maga-

PATHE NEWS CENTURY COMEDY

ENTERTAINMENT COURSE THE SMALLEY TRIO and CHARLES H. CLARK, Baritone Solais

Tickets $1.00.

HOPKINTON

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Brown of Warrenville, Ct., were New Year guests at the home of Rev. E. P. Mathewson. Mr. Brown is representative-elect from the town of Ashford in the Connecticut legis-

Charles R. Kenyon and G. Arthur M. Saturday morning. Herpert Konyon had a lively chimney are in the ell of his residence Saturday

The public schools of Hopkinton opened fonday morning after the holiday vaca-

The mild weather over Sunday re-moved the snow and ice in this vicinity and caused the roads to be muddy. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Allen visited at the home of their son, George E. Allen, at Hope Valley Sunday.

The Hopkinton town clerk's office is to be open Mondays and Thursdays only during the winter, except, by special ap-

RORN.

FITZGEBALD—In Mystic, Jan. 1, 1921, a daughter, Catherine Rose, to Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fitzgerald of 313 Central avenue, Norwich. a son, Vernon Elisworth, in Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bonville (Elsie La Bounty).

MARRIED

BOULEY—CADIEUX—In Jewett City, Jan. 2, 1921, by Nev. John J. McCabe, Edmond Bouley, Jr., of New Bedford, Mass., and Miss Eva Cadleux of Gris-wold Conn.

ATOUR - COURNOYER - In Putnam, Jan. 5, 1931, by Rev. Adrian Dykemans, Edgar Latour of Walbiter, Mass, and Miss Georgianna Cournoyer of Putnam. LUSSIER-CHAGNON-In Putnam Jan. 3, 1921, by Rev. W. A. Routhier, Adrian Lussier and Miss Aurore Chagnon. DESMARAIS — GIBARD — In Taftville, Jan. 7, 1921, by Rev. U. O. Belleruse, Ernest I. Desmarais and Miss Mary Lumina Girard, both of Taftville.

Ernest L. Joseph Lumina Girard, both of Taftville.

GUERTIN — BERNARD — In Taftville,
Jan 3, 1921, by Rey. H. F. Chagnon,
Anthony Raymond Guertin of Norwich and Miss Marion Bernard of Taftville, tional money order offices to be established at the beginning of business Jan.

Money can be sent to 56 foreign

BENNETT WATERMAN In Mt. Vernon. N. Y., Dec. 27, 1920, by Rev. Dr. 4. M. Sweet, Albert Bennett and Miss Hilda Rhodes Waterman, both of Mt. Vernon.

DIED. .

FRASER—In Providence, R. I., Jan. 2, and Augustus, have returned after a stay of several days with relatives in New York.

Funeral at Graham Home, 571 Broad street, Providence, Tuesday at 2 p. m.

FIFZGF RALD—In Norwich, Jan. 3, 1521.
Genevieve Fitzgerald, daughter of the late James J. and Mary Fitzgerald, aged 21 years.

Miss Margaret Coughlin has returned to her home in New York after a few days stay at the home of her parents. Mr. and uneral at Hourigan's funeral pariors at S.20. Wednesday morning. Requiem mass at St. Patrick's church at 3 o'clock. Burial in St. Mary's cemetery. Automobile cortege.

DOLAN—In this city, Jan. 3, 1921, Mary Nally Dolan, widow of Hugh Dolan.

Automobile Cortege.

DOLAN—In this city, Jan. 3, 1921, Mary Nally Dolan, widow of Hugh Dolan. Funeral at her isle residence, No. 1 Lake street, Wednesday morning, Jan. 5, at 8.15. Requiem mass in St. Patrick's church at 16 o'clock. Burial in family lott in St. Joseph's cemetery. Automobile cortege.

Automobile Cortege.

tery at 2.36.

SMITH—At the home of her daughter,
Mis. Everett E. Brown, in Poinfret.
Conn., Jan. 1, 1921. Frances Cornelia
Cornell, widow of John Staples Smith, late of Plainfield, in the 90th year of her age.

Funeral at Poinfret Wednesday, Jan. 5, at 1 o'clock. Burial in the family burying ground at Black Hill. Plainfield.

years. Sotice of funeral hereafter. BUTTON-At Rocky Hill, Jan. 2, 1921, Mary Utley, wife of Worthington But-ton, a native of Hampton, aged 87 years.

Church & Alien 15 Main Street Funeral

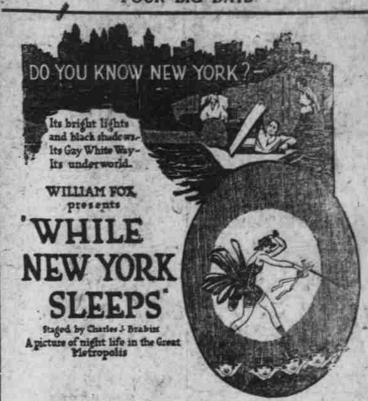

Directors

Embalmers

Lady Assistans . HENRY E CHURCH WM. SMITH ALLEN Telephone 328-3

BREED THEATRE

WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY FOUR BIG DAYS

BUSTER KEATON IN THE THIRD OF HIS MILLION DOLLAR COMEDIES

"NEIGHBORS"

Two Reels of Howling Merriment/That Will Make You Yaugh As You Come And Be Prepared To See the Best Comedy Ever Shown On Screen.

CONCERT ORCHESTRA EDUCATIONAL WEEKLY

TODAY

CECIL B. DeMILLE'S Production

"Something To Think About"

Woman's Enravishing Romance, That Runs the Gamut of Love and Life. Staged With the Dash and Allurement That Only DaMille Can Create. Yet Built on a New Note Never Struck Before in a Motion

"FATTY" ARBUCKLE 'HIS WEDDING NIGHT'

Some Comedy Paramount Magazine

YANTIC

Unclaimed letters here are Mary Hannigan, William Back, Miss Mary Canty, M. Cheni, Jacob Turetsky Miss Dorothy Waterman, Miss Elizabeth

HIRSH—SIEGEL—In this city, Jan. 2, lished at the beginning of business Jan. 1921, by Rev. Joseph N. Rosenberg, Barnet Hirsh of New York and Miss Helen G. Siegel of this city. tries and places outside of the United States to which money can be sent in the domestic forms is 22.

Mrs. R. V. Congdon and daughter Fler-ence have returned from a stay of several days with Providence relatives.

Mrs. Harry Pichlone and sons, Jacob and Augustus, have returned after a stay of several days with relatives in New York.

Ensign Harold Bentley has returned to s ship, the U. S. S. Dickerson, and will on leave for a cruise around South Mr. and Mrs. Hermon J. Gibbs were sests at the Long-Wilson wedding at John Proctor and son John have returned from a holiday visit on Long Isl-and with Mr. Proctor's parents. R. V. Congdon and son Raymend are home after a stay at Stafford Springs with Mr. Congdon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Congdon.

TROOPS FIRED UPON IN THE COAL STRIKE REGION

Williamson, W. Va., Jan. 3.—A detachment of federal troops at Merrimac, W. Va., in the coal strike region, were fired upon from the Kentucky mountains, according to information received by military headquarters shortly after noon today. The firing, which occurred yesterday, was returned by the soldiers. As far as could be learned there were no casualties. casualties.

The attack, it was said, at headquar-ers, followed a disturbance in which several men, alleged to have been

STRAND

TODAY ONLY

Dorothy Dalton and Charles Ray

"BACK OF THE MAN"

Ses Two Famous Stars in This Wonderful Photoplay

"THE MOON RIDERS" Today and Wednesday

BILLIE RHODES in "HIS PAJAMA GIRL" "THE MOON RIDERS"

Mack Sennett Comedy BOMBS AND BRIDES

THURS., FRI., SAT. From Keith Circuit OH! FRENCHY Comedians, Pretty Girls and Gowns Galore, Beautiful Scenery and Wonderful Ensembles, All Fun, a Series of Livaly Specialty Feat-

Starting Sunday

"THUNDERBOLT JACK" The Greatest Western Serial Ever Made, Moves Faster Than Light-ning, From the Opening Scene to the Final Fade-Out.

SOCIAL AND DANCE IN OCCUM HALL Tuesday Night, Jan. 4th Given By the A. D. A. Boya BUD'S ORCHESTRA And Hear That Laughing Trombone

8 TO 11:30

brought into the strike field for employ loft in St. Joseph's cemetery. Automobile cortege.

Albert William, of New London have been spending the holidays at Oakridge farm.

Fundence S. James widow of Charles Thompson, in her 59th year.

Funeral services will be held at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. George L. Griswold. 2 Latham street, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 5, at 12:36 o'clock, Services at the grave in Williamntic cemetery at 2:36.

SMITH—At the home of her daughter, Mrs. Everett E. Brown, in Ponfert, Conn., Jan. 1, 1921. Frances Cornelia Cornell, widow of John Staples Smith, late of Plainfield, in the 90th year of her age.

Funeral at Pomfret Wednesday, Jan. 5, electron of the farmed with the holidays in town with her brother, which afteracted william Kelley, was a guest at Pine Tree Cottage.

Coltage.

Miss Mary Curry has returned to Norwalk after spending the past ten days at his accompleted a visit in Middleboro with her eister. Mrs. Thomas Rawsey, and has returned to her school in Lebanon.

Miss Lorena Rogue has returned to Lebanon after a week's stay at her home.

tures to be given at the high school and torium, the proceeds to go toward the support of the Russell Ubrary.

IT'S GOOD FOR CHILDREN

DANIELSON CASINO. STARKWEATHER BLDG BOWLING AND POCKET BILLIARDS

FOUR ALLEYS THREE TABLES WEDNESDAYS LADIES DAY. Bowling is the sport for all. Prizes given away every Saturday.

LOUIS'E. KENNEDY DANIELSON

Undertaker and Embalmer Special Attention to Every Detail.

ABig Drop JELLO The Genesee Pure Food Company. Le Roy, N.Y.

BIG SALE High Grade Hosiery

All Hose Half Price

2 PAIRS AT THE PRICE OF 1 PAIR

Starting Tuesday, 9 A. M.

LADIES' SILK, LISLE AND COTTON HOSE. MEN'S SILK, LISLE AND COTTON HOSE

ALL HALF PRICE

BOYS', MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S

Gothan Gold Stripe, Onyx Gordan, Emery Beers, and Shawknit-All High-Grade Hose.

CASH SALES.

NO EXCHANGES.

THE KIES CO.